Protecting the Ninety-Nine

Maintaining a safe fellowship environment in dark times.

Speaking Topic Overview

It is now obvious, Christ's warnings about end-of-this-age lawlessness are now front-page news. Places of worship were at one time considered bastions of safety, but now fellowships of all sizes are grappling with how to protect those attending meetings, as well as ministry staff during the week. In addition, congregates should become familiar with laws of self-protection from home invasions, carjacking, and indiscriminate assaults when walking down the street.

The American culture is sliding into deep hatred and persecution towards Christians. This is what Christ warned: "Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. … And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold" (Matthew 24:9-12).

Pastor Charles Pretlow and Minister Tim Fisher team up in presenting safety, fellowship protection, and self-defense protocols that leadership and individual fellowship members can and should implement.

It is now our responsibility as law abiding citizens and church leaders to train, to avoid, to defend and to survive the unimaginable. Most likely you will not have time to dial 911 before an active threat invades the sanctuary, or when the life of loved one is threatened. What you do in the initial moments when attacked will determine if you will survive or become a victim.

Pastor Pretlow introduces the spiritual aspects of fellowship security, safety, and discernment. As the end-of-this-age draws to a close, more people will come to fellowship seeking help and instruction. Unfortunately, many will have an agenda described by the Apostle Paul: "Watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you" (Romans 16:17-20).

Discerning, exposing, and confronting wolves in sheep clothing is a vital leadership duty, as well teaching fellowship members on avoiding evil cloaked in decency.

Tim Fisher presents sound instruction on fellowship security, safety protocols, developing a security team and establishing threat awareness and active threat protocols. Tim is a Certified Krav Maga Instructor - Levels 1-5. Tim received his training from Krav Maga Worldwide - Eagle, Colorado. Tim also holds a 3rd Degree Black Belt Tae Kwon Do; he has over eight years' experience in instructing and training both civilian and law enforcement in Krav Maga, training in threat awareness, control, weapon take away, and defensive tactics.

Tim is NRA certificated in all levels of firearm safety, with certification in concealed carry, handgun, rifle, fellowship security team training, home defense and personal safety. With thirteen (13) years in law enforcement experience working patrol, under-cover narcotics, investigations and S.W.A.T., Tim understands how easily bad things can happen to good people and the importance of learning and training on how not to be a victim. Tim also worked extensively instructing other law enforcement officers in use of force, arrest control, firearms, and as a sniper team instructor.

This is a three-hour long message with two breaks and is designed to help leadership and fellowship members grasp the urgency and the basic steps in implementing fellowship and member security protocols.
